

St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

VOL XXXII.

ST. LOUIS, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1884.—TWELVE PAGES.

NO. 184.

DECORATE

and beautify your homes. Our Skillful Artists can make them cheerful and bright. Your should be adorned with a selection from our immense stock of novelties in Gold and Embossed Paper Hangings, among them many beautiful and artistic styles and designs exclusively our own.

WALLS and CEILINGS

Chas. Dauernheim,
214 NORTH FIFTH STREET.
JOBBER AND RETAILER.
Weather Strips a Specialty.

AND TINNERS' STOCK OF ALL KINDS FOR SALE BY
EXCELSIOR MANUFACTURING CO

SPRING OPENING

Prints and Ginghams!
Handsome Styles!
Largest Stock
Ever Before Shown.

SAM'L C. DAVIS & CO.

McNICHOLS' PROCESSION.

YOU CAN'T CRUSH THE TRUTH.

A little boy blue, blow your horn,
The sheep's in the meadow, the cow's in the corn;
But little Johnnie, his stov'e is a state reform;
Had gone with the flock of folks to town.
Under and over, and up and down,
He tumbled and tumbled, and followed fast
Until all the hay sticks and rocks were past.
Then just as he feared, he could go no more,
He took a short cut through the water store.
McNICHOLS! McNICHOLS! And who is he?
Why, look, "say a beggar, "and can't you see?"

Truth crushed to earth will rise again, and you want to drop in at 1022 and 1024 Market street, and see how it spreads out its branches.

The ONLY McNICHOLS. He courts investigation every time.

ALEXANDER'S DRUG STORE

N. W. Cor. Fifth and Olive Streets.

Pure Medicines, Fine Perfumery, Sponges, Mirrors, Hair Brushes, Combs, Soap and other Fancy Toilet Articles.

ALEXANDER'S UNRIValed COLOGNE WATER.

Prescriptions accurately prepared by competent apothecaries under the supervision of M. W. Alexander, graduate of Philadelphia College of Pharmacy.

WE MUST SELL!

C. Farner Stove, Furniture and Carpet Company

Cor. 14th and Clark Ave. We are offering bargains to our many customers on EASY TIME PAYMENTS at reduced prices; lower than any house in town, for cash, to make room for alterations in building. Come and see us and be convinced

RAZORS!
BEST QUALITY.

AUGUST KERN.
BARBERS' SUPPLIES AND STEAM GRINDING.

926 NORTH SIXTH ST. ST. LOUIS.

SCRUGGS, VANDEROORT & BARNEY

DRY GOODS COMPANY.

Read the Descriptions Given Below of our Offerings This Morning of Job Lots of LADIES', CHILDREN'S and MEN'S HOSIERY!

They will be found truthful in every respect. Our reason for these reductions:

To Clear Up Our Stock Before the Arrival of Our Spring Importations.

15c	Children's Cotton Hose, full regular extra long, French, German and English. These are a very great job.	AT A PAIR	Ladies' Brown Cotton Hose, full regular, extra long.
20c	Ladies' Striped Cotton Hose, reduced from 40c.	AT A PAIR	Ladies' Striped Cotton Hose, reduced from 40c.
25c	Men's British Half Hose, striped and solid.	AT A PAIR	Ladies' Brown Balbriggan Hose, plain and with Silk Clocks.
30c	Children's Striped and Solid colors Cotton Hose, plain and ribbed; reduced from 30c and 40c.	AT A PAIR	Ladies' Solid Cotton Hose, Plain and Ribbed, in 12 shades.
35c	Infants' Cotton Socks, stripes and very best English goods; reduced from 40c and 50c.	AT A PAIR	Ladies' Striped Cotton Hose, 5 styles.
40c	Infants' Lisle Thread, reduced from 40c and 50c.	AT A PAIR	Men's Extra Size Brown Cotton Hose, reduced from 50c.
45c	Children's Striped and Solid colors Cotton Hose, reduced from 50c and 60c.	AT A PAIR	Ladies' Solid Cotton Hose, extra quality.
50c	A lot Solid Colored French Cotton, reduced from 40c.	AT A PAIR	Men's Balbriggan Half Hose, reduced from 50c.
55c	Infants' 34 Cotton Hose, best English makes, reduced from 40c, 50c and 60c.	AT A PAIR	Ladies' Striped and Solid Colors Cotton Hose, reduced from 50c and 60c.
60c	Children's Cotton Hose—a great success, reduced from 50c, 55c and 61c.	AT A PAIR	Men's Balbriggan Fancy Cotton Half Hose, reduced from 60c and 70c.
65c	A few odd lots of Children's French Lisle Hose, reduced from 50c and 61c.	AT A PAIR	Ladies' Fancy Cotton Hose, best English, reduced from 60c and 70c.
70c	Children's Cotton Hose—a great success, reduced from 50c, 55c and 61c.	AT A PAIR	Ladies' Solid Lisle Thread, assorted colors, reduced from $1, $1.10 and $1.20.
75c	A lot of Children's Lisle Hose, reduced from $1, $1.10 and $1.20.	AT A PAIR	Ladies' Fancy Cotton Hose, reduced from $1.20.
80c	Men's Superior English Lisle Half Hose, reduced from $1.35.	AT A PAIR	Men's Superior English Lisle Half Hose, reduced from $1.35.

Gents' Furnishing Department.

We have made many lots of our best quality Men's Linen Collars and Cuffs, 10c and 15c; regular 25c and 40c goods; slightly soiled.

FIRE! WATER!

My entire Stock of Ranges, Stoves and House Furnishing Goods slightly damaged by water will be sold regardless of cost at my temporary location, Nos. 810 and 812 N. Sixth Street. Come Early to secure a Bargain.

CHAS. NIEDRINGHAUS.

810 and 812 NORTH SIXTH-STREET.

TRASK'S COMPRESSED FISH!

1 LB. TABLER'S ONE POUND PACKAGED CUT THROUGH THE LINES	2 LBS. NONE GENUINE UNLESS BEARING OUR TRADE MARK	3 LBS. TRASK'S BEST BONELESS COD FISH COMPRESSED	4 LBS. This Package is Warranted to CONTAIN NOHTHING BUT THE VERY BEST QUALITY COD FISH, TABLER'S FISH	5 LBS. SUPERIOR FOR COD FISH, BONELESS, BONELESS, CURED AND CREAMED Cod Fish Fritters
--	--	---	--	--

It is Cheaper and Better than any other way. For Economy, Convenience and Neatness it has no equal. Ask Your Grocer for it.

Our Cinchona surpasses all others as a veritable TONIC and DRESSING for the HAIR—Fifty Cents.

Our Beef, Iron and Wine contains MORE BEEF and MORE IRON than any other in the market. Our price—75c per Pint Bottle.

MELLIER'S

Retail Department, 711 Washington Av.

A BRITISH BARONET.

Inviting the Jersey Lily to a German She Could Not Attend.

General Paresis—The Malady Which is Affecting Gotham's Business Men—Illustrous Victims—Jay Gould—His Library and Literary Tastes a Fraud—The Little Man's Vanity—Jim Keene—Stock Losses.

Special Telegraphic Letter to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, February 2.—Sir Henry Meyer Thompson, the handsome British Baronet and friend of the Prince of Wales, of whom I gave you some account in a former letter, gave a supper and a dinner to a large and distinguished company at the Brunswick last night. Sir Henry has been having a protracted illness in New York, and was unable to get him to leave the city. He has however been able to give Edmund some valuable points. These parties are not so much the rage as they were a few years ago, but Edmund has succeeded Monroe. Instead of the elaborate party advised by the Atlas of the World of London, Edmund had a good deal of fun with the French. The handsome dancing parlors of the Brunswick were transformed into a perfect floral temple, and the tables were covered with a glitter of glass and gems of purest ray serene.

THE MUSIC WAS DELIGHTFUL.

the dancing was excellent, and the supper was served.

The Baronet's recuperation of the hosiery was a complete success.

THE HERO OF THE GOLDEN SPUR

they have been to the stock speculators in which the large army of operators and brokers have been engaged.

It is a singular fact that the name of the Jersey Lily, or thinly veiled allusions to that lady, occurred with surprising frequency in the papers.

It is a singular fact that the name of Mrs. Langtry, and this friendship had placed him in a predicament.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

that he had become a popular figure.

He had so often mentioned her on the stage

St. Louis Post-Dispatch
PUBLISHED BY THE DISPATCH PUBLISHING CO.
JOSEPH FULTNER, President

Entered as Post Office at St. Louis, Mo., as second class mail matter.

TERMS OF THE DAILY.
One year, postage paid... $3.00
Six months... 1.50
One month... .75
One week... .25
One month (delivered by carrier)... .25
By the week (delivered by carrier)... .25
Subscribers who fail to receive their copy of the Post-Dispatch may do so by mailing it to us by enclosing the same to this office on post cards.

THE WEEKLY.
Over-year, postage paid... $5.00
Six months, postage paid... 2.50
All business or news letters or advertisements should be addressed to POST-DISPATCH,
15 and 16 Market Street.

TWELVE PAGES.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1885.

AMUSEMENTS THIS EVENING.

OLYMPIC—Baker and Farouz—“Chris and Lena.”

GRAND—“Bunns of Keys.”

POPE’S—New Opera Company—“Queen’s Lace Handkerchief.”

PROFLY—Hunting Company—“Streets of New York.”

STANGLAND—Rents-Sanley Company—“The Spanish Girl.”

EDWARD’S—Theatre Comique—Variety Olympia—Bob and Charles Ford—“The Brothers’ Oath.”

FIFTH ST. DIME NURKIN—I. M. to 19 p.m.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY HALL—El Perkins—“Philosophy of Wit and Humor.”

MATINEE TO-DAY.

OLYMPIC—“Government House.”

GRAND—“A Bunns of Keys.”

POPE’S—“Queen’s Lace Handkerchief.”

PROFLY—“Streets of New York.”

STANGLAND—Rents-Sanley Company.

THE FITZ JOHN PORTER CASE passed the House yesterday. In twenty years the Republican party has not dared to do an act of simple justice.

AT Lewiston in Maine a railroad corporation has been found guilty of manslaughter and has been fined $1,000. Daniel seems to have come to judgment and chosen the Maine circuit.

We are sorry to say that in the gas question the City Council is recklessly throwing away the most valuable asset of the city. However, the people do not seem to care very much what becomes of their property, and what is everybody’s business is nobody’s business.

In his class at West Point, ALEXANDER, the colored cadet, finds but eight men above him, while there are ninety-one below him. Among the latter is Senator LOGAN’s son, who ranks next to last in the class. Hereditary trouble with the English language is probably what keeps this young man back.

UNUSUALLY mild weather so far in Northern Europe has been attended by unusually cold weather in Southern Europe. Our own Southern States have had colder weather and more of it than the oldest inhabitant there experienced, while the mean temperature for the winter so far in our Northern States is above the average, in spite of a brief cold snap or two.

Most of the Ohio Congressmen say that the Ohio platform means, “Let the tariff alone as it is—don’t ask for any change till it has had a further trial—but insist on changing it so as to restore the old duty on wool.” FRANK HIRD, however, says he will not only make a speech against such restoration, but will show that free trade in wool will be better for the interests of Ohio wool growers.

To see a paper of the standing of the Chicago Tribune treating the alleged “Benjamin” letter as the genuine production of the brilliant and celebrated JUDAH P., is enough to take the professional conceit entirely out of the journalistic fraternity. It is the worst case of hallucination and hysterics Chicago has seen since LYDIA THOMPSON’s cowbile threw STOREY into spiritualistic fits and trances.

THE reduction of $12,000,000 in the national debt in the past month leads us to ask what people mean by referring to the requirements of the sinking fund? The only purpose of the sinking fund is to meet the bonds as they mature, and we have habitually met the bonds before the final period of maturity. We are now so far ahead of sinking fund requirement that in all future discussion of the debt and revenue, it would be just as well to leave the sinking fund out of the question.

ONCE by our own brightest visions fade. We have long cherished Private DALZELL as a sort of last rose of summer, the solitary private figure prominently as a war hero and patriot among the Republican politicians. But in having his Congressman introduce a bill for an increase of his pension, he has given it away flat and cold that he was Sergeant-Major of the 11th Ohio. As a Sergeant Jinks, of the journalistic horse-marines, he has long been the most conspicuous bore in the Union.

WE are pained to note that the young Western “metropolis” called Kansas City, which has recently been developing an undue amount of bumptiousness, will be compelled to listen to the Patti Opera Troupe without PATTI. The wealthy ticket-squealers and the aesthetic pork-butchers were anxious to hear ADALINA, but when Colonel MAPLESON announced that he needed a guarantee of $12,000 as a prerequisite, they thoughtfully expectedly the opinion that “this yer opernor bissell is spillin’ the legitimit dramy all over the country,” and said they “didn’t want no PATTI in them.”

WHILE Mr. SHERMAN’s committee are in Virginia they should hunt up that Poconos County farmer who appeared in St. Louis the other day with a drove of slaves he wished to sell at auction, having never heard of the Thirteenth Amendment. Also, while in Mississippi, the committee should take a run into Alabama and inspect that large plantation recently described in the New York Tribune as being cultivated by a hundred slaves who have never heard of emancipation. The imaginative reporters and correspondents of the bloody shirt organa can supply the committee with plenty of documentation and unlimited campaign material.

POLICE PISTOL PRACTICE.

We hear no expression of opinion from the Mayor and police authorities to reassure the citizens that their lives are to be protected from police firing in the streets. The inference is that the policemen have the approval of their superiors in converting the public thoroughfares into private shooting galleries, and that reputable citizens must prepare to dodge into doorways or seek the alternative of being shot down whenever a calaboose tramp tries to escape from an officer.

If we cannot have a stop put to street pistol practice the least we have a right to ask is that the policemen shall be compelled to make personal acquaintance with the weapon so rashly used. A few months ago, a policeman who was called on to kill a wounded dog put the muzzle of his pistol to the dog’s head and shot himself in the foot.

And inasmuch as almost any policeman would rather catch a prisoner than shoot an innocent stranger, we would request that the policemen who through old age and obesity are no longer able to run be retired from a public position in which some physical activity is occasionally required. Many of our policemen would delight the eye of a cannibal or win prizes at a fat man’s carnival. But these are not aspirations directly in the line of police requirements, and there would be less inducement to resort to the revolver if the policemen were able to use their legs in a stern chase. Anything in the way of relief which the authorities may grant to an alarmed public will be gratefully acknowledged.

THE TERRIBLE SURPLUS.

The surplus is a temptation to extravagance; the reduction of the debt is going on more rapidly than the people really wish; taxation in excess of the needs of the revenue is a mistake. All these propositions are universally admitted. But do they constitute any real grievance? Are they questions of importance at this particular time? The temptation to extravagance is checked at present by the knowledge that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

We are sorry to say that in the gas question the City Council is recklessly throwing away the most valuable asset of the city. However, the people do not seem to care very much what becomes of their property, and what is everybody’s business is nobody’s business.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

Now, are we asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a country to be paying off its debt.

WE are asked to believe that the people are keeping a close watch on both parties in Congress. The reduction of the debt is a superfluous act of generosity for the benefit of the next generation, but no one will seriously maintain that it is any great misfortune for a

FOR RENT-BDWELLINGS.

2824 ADAMS ST.—Eight rooms, bath, laundry room for family, furnished man and maid. $125 per month. Address to M. Dugger, grocer, 120 Pine st. #4.

2315 WASH ST.—Seven-room house. KEELEY & CO., 70 Pine.

3009 HICKORY ST.—Three-story house. KEELEY & CO., 70 Pine.

3524 PINE ST.—A new 11-room, stone-front house, all modern conveniences. Address to Mr. Gerhart & Co., real estate agents, 114 N. 5th st. #4.

3637 LUCKY ST.—Two rooms, second floor. REELEY & CO., 70 Pine st.

3737 PINNEY AV.—Six rooms in good order. 5th & St. Louis st.—Eight rooms, stone front, hall, gas and bath. $35.

1200 Dickson—Eight rooms, stone front, disconnected, rent $25.

JOHN DOCKERY, House and Real Estate Agent, 925 Washington av.

TO LET—FOR BUSINESS PURPOSES.THE SAXONY,

Jefferson Avenue and LaSalle Street.

Those very desirable Stores and Flats must be seen to be appreciated. Plush in the best taste with Closets and Gas Fixtures. Water in Stores and Bath. Apply at once to:

BEVON PHIL, 802 Chestnut Street.

503 N. SECOND ST.—Fine factory stone building;

503 rent reasonable to good tenants. $25.

JOHN DOCKERY, House and Real Estate Agent, 925 Washington av.

For RENT—Good lunch counter. $40, this office.

111 Pine st.

HOUSES, ROOMS, ETC. WANTED.

WANTED—Two or more well-furnished rooms with party who is quiet. Address, with terms, to this office. #21.

WANTED—One or two plainly furnished rooms for boarders in southward part of city; price not to exceed $12 or $15; children. #48, this office.

WANTED—A nice, furnished room by a gentleman for a single person, who will pay $15.00 per month. It must be agreeable; no objection to one or two men. Call at 114 N. 5th st. #4.

WANTED—Two or three rooms, and kitchen in good condition, near school. In family will pay $12 to $15; give price and location. #48. This office. #21.

REAL ESTATE WANTED.

WANTED—Building for factory purposes, with power preferred. 3 or 4 stories; about $20,000. Broad & Vroom, 600 Pine st. #22.

WANTED—Small place, five to twenty acres in or near small town next to St. Louis. Ad. #4.

400, this office. #21.

MISCELLANEOUS WANTS.

BOYLAN, LEONORI & CO., 1000 Olive st., have the following wants: wanted accommodations for storing kinds of goods in the city; low rates. #26.

DELICATESSEN.

D'ONT fail to visit W. Mohr's Confectionery and Ice-cream Parlor, something new every day. #26.

D'ON F. BULL'S COUGH DROPS. 50 per box. #26

SILVERWARE.

20 cent less than anywhere else.

Quadruple plate dinnerware. #27.

WANTED—Furniture, pictures, antiques, books, etc.

Theo. Eagle, Jeweler, 4th and Pine, next GLOBE-MOCHAT.

WANTED—A good, second-hand office-clock, also a stove; must be cheap for cash. Address, with price, to this office. #21.

WANTED—1 cent to cash for a used safe; not to exceed $40. Call at 80 N. 6th st. #26.

WANTED—To buy a trumpery bed cheap. Address 220 Pine st.

MONEY TO LOAN.

$25 AND UPWARDS loaned on furniture without removal; $100 on household goods, pianos, etc.

MONEY loaned on household goods, pianos, etc. etc. removed; lowest rates business strictly confidential. Address J. H. Vettes, Notary Public, 810 Chestnut st.

MONEY to loan on household furniture, without removal; less than $25. This office. #21.

WANTED, FOR CASH!

Good second-hand piano. Highest price paid. Boylan, Leonori & Co., 1000 Olive st.

DEALER IN PLATES.

D'ON T fail to visit W. Mohr's Confectionery and Ice-cream Parlor, something new every day. #26.

D'ON F. BULL'S COUGH DROPS. 50 per box. #26

FINANCIAL.

$25 AND UPWARDS loaned on furniture without removal; $100 on household goods, pianos, etc.

MONEY loaned on household goods, pianos, etc. etc. removed; lowest rates business strictly confidential. Address J. H. Vettes, Notary Public, 810 Chestnut st.

MONEY to loan on household furniture, without removal; less than $25. This office. #21.

THEO. EAGLE, JEWELER, 4TH AND PINE.

SEWING MACHIN'S.—Fasten door against temptation. They will charge you $25 commission to do so.

THE LOUIS FIRE AND WATER PROOF Paint and Roofing Co. makes the best new roof in the world. Call at 1115 Franklin av. #26.

WANTED—By every one who washes clothing. Electric Light Soap. It saves rubbing. Use the bottle. Call at 1115 Franklin av. #26.

WANTED—5000 ready rods to repair by St. Louis Market St. 26. Call at 1115 Franklin av. #26.

WANTED—To buy old United States coin also a few gold coins. Call at 1200 Olive st. #26.

WANTED—A good, short-hand correspondent. Address 220 Pine st.

WANTED—Desiring short-hand correspondence. Address 220 Pine st.

WANTED—A good, short-hand typewriter. Address 220 Pine st.

WANTED—Private parties having second-hand seam-work, can hear of a customer by advertising in this office. #26.

WANTED—Job work to build business, such as padding, heating and gas furnaces, also smelting of iron, steel, copper, zinc, lead, etc. Address to others set to consume their smoke. Ad. John Neville 101 Olive st. #26.

WANTED—Private parties having second-hand seam-work, can hear of a customer by advertising in this office. #26.

BOOKS.

D'ON not fail to buy all kinds of new books are sold at half price at Armer's 5th Pine st.

WANTED—200 standard old books. Drop note to Dan Litman, bookseller, 4th and Washington.

EDUCATIONAL.

R. G. F. BULL'S COUGH DROPS. 50 per box. #26

PARADELIA.

PARADELIA'S Healing salve will cure burns, infin-mation and old sores, no matter how long standing. Price 25 cents, sent to any part of the city on request of postal card. Southwest cor. 12th and Olive st. #26.

J. F. SWAIN, manufacturer of moulds (glas-) and practical, small machines, etc. Chestnut st. #26.

A PLEASANT GUARANTEED strictly pure juice. Geo. W. Hilliard, Brighton, Ill. #26

HILLARD'S SOFT DRINK. 1775 FRANKLIN AV.

APPLE CIDER.—Guaranteed strictly pure juice. Geo. W. Hilliard, Brighton, Ill. #26

BRIGHTON'S most desiring short-hand correspondence. Address 220 Pine st.

M. A. MUNSON'S Short-hand and Typewriting Institute, 1140 Olive st. #26.

ALL SORTS.

$100 will be paid to any person who, after giving full information, can furnish a perfect copy of the

WANTED—A sober, steady printer would like a steady position, good pay. Address 220 Pine st. #26.

WANTED TO LOAN.—From $100 to $10,000 on good security, without commision. Charles King, 1115 Franklin av. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the

barber trade. Ad. this office. #26.

WANTED—A young man who likes to learn the <div data-bbox="78 111

SONG OF THE FRENCH REPUBLIC.

The Old World stood in its Old-World pride
(Liberty! Liberty!)
The Emperor twas stood by side
There were lords to command and slaves to obey,
And saints to worship and priests to pray
But "All men are brothers, equal and free!"
We struck the blow and the Old World fell—Austerlitz! Austerlitz!
The Old World was done in as quick fits,
And France is the hand of the tree.

III.
There crawled a creature out of the mud;
His hands were red with human blood;
He was born in a glorious name;
To cover the sin and hide the shame
He sinned and lied, and we all have
And the world is done in as quick fits.

Sedan! Sedan!

Alas for the second fall of man!

And alas for the hand of the tree!

But France, our France, is glorious still
(Liberty! Liberty!)
And our banner flies over Brazzaville
(Equality!)
In the New World we'll be the slave;
We slew the tyrant at Tahiti;
From east to west a tremor ran
(All men are brothers, equal and free!)
When Suez blotted out Sedan
(God dwells in heaven, in Paris we);

We'll drink to the name that will die,
We'll drink to the hand of the tree!

AMONG OURSELVES.

"Whoa, January!"

It did sound just a little out-of-place, coming as it did from rosy, feminine lips. The speaker was on horseback, and her steel was inclined to be rather more festive than suited the rider's idea of the amount of propriety due the occasion. It did sound just the least bit startling, I say, till I suddenly noticed that I was on the corner of Twenty-ninth and Pine streets. When the force of the remark struck me, I saw the point and smiled as I passed on.

Just now, when the question of mid-winter flounces and furbelows is settled, and too early to get more than the least hint as to the next season's campaign, the feminine mind may be supposed to be in a state of tranquility on one subject at least. But if you think so, it is you who are not up to date. Turn up a swirl when it comes to the unimitable resonances of the feminine mind on the subject of flounces and flummery in general.

First there is the sachet. Now of course, everybody knows that sachet is only the new-fangled name for soap-bag. The latest ones are plated on satin ribbons, in which the corners are cut off, so that when a bow on one corner must be of the darker shade employed in the making of the article.

Then comes the very latest Para craze in stationery. A horridly awkward looking arrangement it is, but then it's the style, you know. The note paper, which is foisted in bad style, is the wide broad brand as it is long as the envelope twice as long and broad. So your letter is in the same style as the story writer's lawyer, with his importunate documents in a bag. The cutting of the line is well, something entirely new, is a tiny spot of visiting books. They come in Russia leather and Morocco. The address book with its latest pages is a horrid mess. But the fat small scale, while the register of calls is conveniently lined, allowing spaces for calls received, made, and the order in which they are returned. They come in a neat case, exactly like the prayer book and vestment.

Woman's foot will no longer do penance in some black, so fashion has decreed. And when one is poetically inclined and about to affix to the "little mice" trick, the poetry will be written in a larger hand. But the fat heard of white covered sole. But the fat has gone forth that the Oxford tie in wine colored alligator skin shall appear with the blue birds, leatwise the sparrows, for street wear.

For full dress the Victoria slipper, in bronze, with front opening in open work, will lead. The Theo slipper, also in bronze, with its high and half high satin ribbon in the square loose.

The last, a great favorite, but should only be worn on a foot inclined to flatness, as it has a tendency to increase the size of the foot, while it also enlarges the instep.

There's a hank for every want, but sometimes the wound and the bain don't seem to hit. Now for some time past the God of envy—or is it a goddess?—has been inflicting wounds on a number of our fair matrons and maidens. This is the first time that one of our society leaders has appeared on various occasions attired in a magnificent "Paris" costume—robes which were marvels of beauty and magnificence and caused the wearer's less fortunate sisters to break the ninth commandment in a true spirit of jealousy. The summer resort correspondents lavish in their extravagant praise, and extolled at length on the inimitable skill of "Parisian" handwork. And of course under their exploitation the dress gives the all-around winds. And this is where the bain comes in; every one of those "Paris" dresses were made in St. Louis by a Washington avenue modiste.

Somebody says he is inclined to think, with Bill Nye, that dignity doesn't always pan out in exact accordance with our expectations. We are likewise inclined, after witnessing a little street-corner episode, in which a fat, balding, middle-aged man present, who had been a good boy, had been a bad boy, and a haughty look at the vacant seat, while the lady accented what she considered the best of the situation, which was the strap.

Pretty soon the lady of honor signalled the constable to go up to leave the car, but the fat willed it otherwise. Now the lady was furrowed and fringed up to the latest notch, and it was the lovely Marabout which acted as a magnet to Kismet in the instant of following. The color gave a pull, which disturbed the mantle on the shoulders of the dignified one, who turned in his seat to crush the offender with his fat stare, however, he was too busy making a most intimate acquaintance with the mud on the small boy's shoes. The lady of color kept up a series of short pauses, realized the, to say the least uncomfortable condition of affairs, she gave that man's jerk which effectively severed all connection with the seat. Some time turned red in the face as the half suppressed titter passed through the car, and meekly subsided into the vacant set, while the lady of color bore on the path in the shape of a long string of Marabout's hairs.

If you want to see fun—fun fast and furious—just go to the Roller Skating Rink some night. The skaters begin with several slow, easy climbs, but as the time goes on, the time the hand has played a few bars of a gallop and they have got their way, all start in with a spin, which is infectious. At the rear of the rink stood Jim Turner, Miss Steinweber, was specially noted for excellence in Roller skating. Miss Scarritt went through all sorts of intricate figures with an accuracy that was well merited ap-plane. Miss Steinweber was beyond comparison the most graceful skater on the floor. Her sylph-like form glided through the figures, without the least perceptible effort, the only movement all through being that same swan-like glide.

I wonder why they don't appear in regular skating costume? The only on the floor was Julia Perkins, gray, close skirt and jacket, bordered with silver fox fur, the Langtry turban being of gray velvet, with a fur band. The others, who were dressed in a similar style, were Miss Schofield, Willing, Lottie Woods, Wilkerson, Boderman, Lewis and little Clara Ravlin; among the gentlemen were Misses Meeks, Cumming, and Peeton, the latter being the "fast" skater.

A joke so good, to tell on top of the world, is a certain way, who resides on Pine street. It occurred during the late St. Louis Fair. The lady is one of those who think themselves treated very badly if not allowed to wear a certain number of diamonds.

The House of Public Comfort at their own sweet will. As everybody knows—or perhaps everybody doesn't, certainly the lady in question does not—is in part a private residence.

It was on Friday, when the lady of the house happened to step into her dining room, to find Alice, the maid, standing before her sideboard looking in rapt admiration at a quarter silver sugar-bowl which she held in her hand. Her first thought was, "What?" But then, "How a truer convinced her of her mistake. That lady was surely not meditating an escape with the spoons or sugar-bowl."

"I'll give you this bowl!" said Alice.

"It's not for sale, madame."

"Just on exhibition?" Well, I want it after the exhibit is closed, Alice replied.

"Tell Mr. — that Mrs. — has positively spoken for it. I'll call for it Monday. Now be sure and keep it for me."

Reluctantly placing it on the sideboard, the lady slowly moved out of the room, casting her eye negligently about her as she did so, while for a moment the unwilling Alice was at a loss what to do. Finally she returned for the coveted article, and the owner, with a magnanimity that might be imitated with profit, simply said:

"Mrs. — is sorry to be unable to accommodate you, but the bowl is not for sale."

PAUL PRY.

Call and Be Convinced.

Collars and cuffs, unbound, equal to new Eastern wear, 200 per dozen. Missouri Steam Laundry, Office, 715 Olive street.

A LADY-LIKE COW.

Why a Good Man Hankered for the Blood of Nick Parish.

From the Arkansas Traveller.

Nothing more than a good, kind-hearted and gentle milk cow, with a fat and firm body, and the difficulties standing in the way of family contentment. When Parson Jimlin moved to our neighborhood, his first question was, "What's got a gentleman's name?" Nick Parish had the best known and most upright men in the community, had a gentle cow, if a man wanted a very unusual cow, he could buy a fat, well-milked cow, a sturdy, dark-colored, well-made, and the owner in which it was imitated with profit, simply said:

"Mrs. — is sorry to be unable to accommodate you, but the bowl is not for sale."

PAUL PRY.

Call and Be Convinced.

Collars and cuffs, unbound, equal to new Eastern wear, 200 per dozen. Missouri Steam Laundry, Office, 715 Olive street.

A SWEET PLACE TO LIVE IN.

Specimen Sports of a Gang of Cowboys in a New Mexican Town.

From the Santa Fe Review.

Billy Wilson, Tom Pickett, Yank Beale and Ponny Williams, once members of the notorious Billy the Kid's gang, took the town of Silver City, New Mexico, by storm last week, and after two days and nights of hellish carnal revelry they would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

"I have nothing to forgive," said he, "but you are not otherwise, neither could I; but you are surely not intending to quit the school."

"Die," answered Alice, "I would rather die than pass through three months of such scenes as I have to."

She was given more trouble, there was none in the school that would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

"I have nothing to forgive," said he, "but you are not otherwise, neither could I; but you are surely not intending to quit the school."

She was given more trouble, there was none in the school that would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

"I have nothing to forgive," said he, "but you are not otherwise, neither could I; but you are surely not intending to quit the school."

She was given more trouble, there was none in the school that would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

"I have nothing to forgive," said he, "but you are not otherwise, neither could I; but you are surely not intending to quit the school."

She was given more trouble, there was none in the school that would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

"I have nothing to forgive," said he, "but you are not otherwise, neither could I; but you are surely not intending to quit the school."

She was given more trouble, there was none in the school that would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

"I have nothing to forgive," said he, "but you are not otherwise, neither could I; but you are surely not intending to quit the school."

She was given more trouble, there was none in the school that would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

"I have nothing to forgive," said he, "but you are not otherwise, neither could I; but you are surely not intending to quit the school."

She was given more trouble, there was none in the school that would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

"I have nothing to forgive," said he, "but you are not otherwise, neither could I; but you are surely not intending to quit the school."

She was given more trouble, there was none in the school that would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

"I have nothing to forgive," said he, "but you are not otherwise, neither could I; but you are surely not intending to quit the school."

She was given more trouble, there was none in the school that would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

"I have nothing to forgive," said he, "but you are not otherwise, neither could I; but you are surely not intending to quit the school."

She was given more trouble, there was none in the school that would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

"I have nothing to forgive," said he, "but you are not otherwise, neither could I; but you are surely not intending to quit the school."

She was given more trouble, there was none in the school that would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

"I have nothing to forgive," said he, "but you are not otherwise, neither could I; but you are surely not intending to quit the school."

She was given more trouble, there was none in the school that would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

"I have nothing to forgive," said he, "but you are not otherwise, neither could I; but you are surely not intending to quit the school."

She was given more trouble, there was none in the school that would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

"I have nothing to forgive," said he, "but you are not otherwise, neither could I; but you are surely not intending to quit the school."

She was given more trouble, there was none in the school that would be at all likely to give you trouble, except the Bradleys, boys, and as long as I am there I will advise you never to let them near you.

As fast as the sequins prevailed, and Alice finally consented to teach a week longer, and at the end of that time she decided to make a school move again. But Alice had determined to quit the school; she felt as if she would rather be the poorest washerwoman than to be badgered, tormented, and tortured for months end.

</

HISTORIC LIGHT.

The Traditions of the Democracy in Regard to the Tariff.

What All the Great Leaders Have Taught.

Interesting Summary of Their Views for a Century Back.

From the New York World.

Both great political parties are and always have been advocates of protection through tariff duties; the one of excessive protection as a means of protecting special interests, without regard to the amount of revenue required for Government expenses; the other of protection incidental to and regulated by the necessities of the Government.

George Washington, upon whose principles Democracy is founded, signed the first tariff bill "to protect manufacturers," and said in his message: "It is often difficult to tell the people require that they should promote such manufactures as tend to render them independent of others for essential, particularly for military supplies."

Thomas Jefferson, father of Democracy, was a protectionist. In his report on the commerce of the United States in 1783, immediately before his retirement from the Cabinet, he advised the principles of protection.

In 1802 in his message he decided upon protection to American industry to be one of the "landmarks by which we are to guide ourselves in all our proceedings."

Again in his last message to Congress he congratulated the country that the new manufacturing interests would "under protecting duties," become permanent.

President Madison's message in 1817 said: "Our manufacturers will likewise require the systematic and fostering care of our Government."

Andrew Jackson, in his letter to Dr. Collier, said that our manufacturing interests "ought to have extended to them adequate protection, that our manufacturers and laborers may be placed in fair competition with those of foreign countries."

In a speech of December 7, 1830, President Jackson upheld the constitutional power of the United States to maintain and adjust duties on imports, "with a view to the encouragement of domestic branches of industry."

HOW DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTS UPHELD INDEPENDENT PROTECTION.

Martin Van Buren, nominated and elected President by the Democratic party after he had established his position on the question of the "tariff," C. Calhoun was defeated by the Whigs in the Free Tariff Bill. But he framed and carried the tariff of 1816, mainly maintaining the constitutionality and expediency of protection in its speech.

Again in his last message to Congress he congratulated the country that the new manufacturing interests would "under protecting duties," become permanent.

President Jackson's message in 1817 said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

President Jackson, in his inaugural address delivered on March 4, 1845, said:

"In imposing duties for the purpose of revenue, it is necessary to discriminate as far as possible between the articles on which the duties shall be laid, as well as the amount, necessarily and properly exists."

"So long as the duties shall be laid with due reference to the wants of the treasury, no well-founded objection can be raised against them."

IN NEW ENGLAND. Being impartial, it embraces all. • • • The Legislature of Pennsylvania have given us what, in my opinion, is the correct version of the American system. That is, the best interests of our country demand that every possible exertion should be made to prevent the passage of an act of Congress imposing duties as well as all possible manufacturers to enter into fair competition with foreign manufacturers, and protect the farmer, the grower of hemp and wool and the different articles from domestic manufacturers against foreign competition.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

The Whigs used to argue as an argument against protection. If we are an agricultural country, they asked, why not let labor see reward in the soil?

But the agriculturists were not the only ones who argued in favor of protection.

F. W. GUERIN, Photographer,
Removed to the new studio
10th and Washington Av.
Special attention paid to Crayon and Pastel work.
Medals awarded at the World's Exposition, Paris.

12 lbs Granulated Sugar, $1.
ST. LOUIS TEA CO., 10th N. Fifth St.

CHEAP RAILWAY TICKETS
J. W. Stockbridge, Ticket Broker,
605 WASHINGTON AVENUE (under Lindell Hotel)
Excursion Tickets bought and exchanged.

CITY NEWS.

Try our 48e tea. For delicacy of flavor and strength they are unequalled. IMA BOUTEL.

First-Class Furniture
In Mahogany, Maple, Rosewood, Ebony, Walnut, Ash and Cherry, made on hand and to order, Furniture. Send for illustrated catalogue.

Gurney Furniture Co. 500 N. Fourth Street, St. Louis.

The justly famed "Anderson" and Belmont Four mash whiskies and all other liquors quantities to suit, at lowest prices, delivered free by James Lipe & Co., 234 and 326 Olive Street.

CHARLOTTE CUSHMAN thought Pezzoni's Medicated Complexion Powder the best she ever used.

Dr. E. C. Chase,
222 Olive street. Set of teeth $3.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated, and made fine furnished. Dr. Dinsheer, 814 Pine Street.

The owner having other business to occupy his entire time off his stock, fixtures and working material of a long established first-class hair and fancy goods store, situated in the business center of this city. The business has a reputation of twenty-seven years' standing, and is worth the asking price of $1,500.00. The trade is good business or to extend their trade. The property, all of which is first-class, will be offered at a positive bargain for cash, approved credit or desirable real estate. For an interview address M. A. Perkins, 4118 Pine street.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Jacques, 709 Chestnut Street.

Our own citizens, men, women, or St. Charles street, as for twenty-five years, may be found from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. where remarkable cures may be had of blood diseases, impotencies to marriage, etc., all diseases of indiscretion, excesses, indulgences, Safe medicines; consultation free. "Health, Beauty, Longevity," 350 pages, sent sealed, 50 cents, or at office.

CITY NEWS.

The College of Pharmacy is about to erect a $10,000 building at the corner of Sixth street and Clark avenue.

About 10 o'clock last night the residence of Paul Burke, a fireman, No. 100 North Main street, was damaged by fire, the loss being $500.

Somebody abandoned a five-week-old child in Meramec River, and the police have been unable to find the mother.

The Human Society has determined to call a meeting of the people of St. Louis Club, for the purpose of devising means for extending the scope of its benevolence.

The Building Committee of the School Board last evening awarded to H. Manistre, plasterer, and to the G. W. West Plaster Mill, the contract for the stuccoing of the damage caused by the recent fire at Meramec School.

Deputy Sheriff A. J. Carle of Cairo, Ill., goes from St. Louis to the city of Cairo, Ill., to take charge of George Walker, the third thief whose life is about to expire. Walker is wanted in St. Louis for the shooting of a child in Belleville, and Officer Donnelly gets $40 reward for his capture.

James Massa, saloon-keeper at Eleventh and Market streets, refused to give a tramp a glass of beer last night, and the tramp went out and proceeded to a saloon and kept him from getting a drink. It broke, also, a fine show case on the counter, and the tramp was captured by the police to get even, and the police capture the offender free drinks will be cut off.

Larry Daly, the huckster, fired a shot last night, and who attested to run away after having paid only a portion of his fare. The trip was made in a trolley car, and the fare for the day charged $5. Cobis paid $3, and soon afterward bolted. The shot was fired at the corner of Fifth and Locust streets, and the bullet, on closing, created great excitement. Daly was arrested and Cobis was unharmed.

Gentlemen's Fine Shirts.

By devoting particular attention to the cut and finish of their shirts, the firm of T. B. Boyd & Co., 308 and 310 North Fourth street, are gaining a reputation unequaled by any house in this country for producing fine shirts.

FRATERNITY FACTS.

Washington Association, No. 3, N. A. A., met this evening with work.

The Masonic School of Instruction will be largely attended this evening.

No. 30, Knights of Honor, entertain their friends this evening.

Missouri Lodge, No. 4, O. U. W. will work on the second degree this evening.

Irish Order, No. 22, Ancient Order of Druids, will have a general meeting this evening.

This evening Martha Washington Lodge, D. of E., meet at the hall, corner Fourth and Locust.

Ell Perkins will speak to-night at Mercantile Library Hall, under the auspices of the A. O. U. W.

Our Neighbors Lodge, No. 223, Good Templars, have something good in store for attendees to-night.

Clan McDonald, No. 6, Order Scottish Clans, will have work and other important matters on hand this evening.

George Washington Council, No. 214, American Legion of Honor, will have initiatory work this evening.

Alameda Commandery, No. 18, Order of the Red Cross, has changed its ritual into the German language.

St. Alameda Commandery, No. 18, Knights of Pythias, hold regular meetings to-night, with drill, at 8:30 o'clock.

The rank of Pace was conferred last night by the Knights of Pythias, in full style. Many visitors were present.

St. Louis Lodge, No. 5, I. O. O. F. will have some very interesting ceremonies this evening connected with the initiation of candidates.

Bishop Ryan's Return.

Bishop F. P. O'Reilly accompanied Bishop Ryan to Europe, and alone last night he was received at the chapter by the delegation of Knights of Father Mathew, of which he is Supreme Chief. He states that Bishop Ryan is not yet archbishop, but is conductor to Archbishop Kenrick, with right of succession. Concerning the sermons of Bishop Ryan in Dublin, wherein he is reported as having declared that in Ireland and France the people had been pitted against each other, and Faith had triumphed, Father O'Reilly states that the report is erroneous in effect. What the Bishop meant to say was undoubtedly to say to those who heard him that the people of Ireland and France had to pit Faith against Patriotism in the past, and that they might be doing so now; but that definitely they were not doing so now.

"That fellow, Harrison, is the liveliest preacher I have ever seen," said a stout man with chin whiskers, "He reminds me of a rat-terrier looking for a rat."

"He is the foot of the church near the right hand aisle four colored people, one man and three women, were seated in them, of the volunteers who were talking to them, of the volunteers who were talking to them."

"He's jes' kind to do good work," said one of them.

"Yes, he is especially favored by God for this noble work," said the volunteer.

Mr. Harrison was addressed by Dr. Tudor, who said he was satisfied with the result of his work in St. Louis up to this time.

"I am much pleased with it," said the preacher, the total number of conversions thus far have been two hundred."

"How do these converts compare with the results of the same kind of work in other cities?"

"They are greater than we have been anywhere else. In Cincinnati during the first week of my ministry there, the converts numbered fifty; in Indianapolis eleven, though in both those cities the numbers kept growing all the time, so that towards the end of the month there were nearly a hundred. If they keep on in St. Louis as they have begun I shall have every reason to be pleased."

"What is the secret of their success?"

"It is the personal touch, the personal interest, the personal sympathy, how many of them are brought to the altar by appeals to their emotions, and how many of them are received into the church."

"I think I may safely say that most of every ten of them come to the altar with the desire to make good what they ought to do so. You see every man and woman has learned the elements of religion, the necessity of being saved, but those from grace chiefly through carelessness. Now, I am not going to claim that they have returned to their old ways at once, but it would be natural for them to do so. They have had a strong aversion to walking in the straight path while they all know, but from which they have always stayed away."

"Are the people who attend your services in St. Louis of the same class as those who are preached to?"

"Yes, sir, the men mostly business people, the women mostly housewives, or St. Louis citizens, as for twenty-five years, may be found from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. where remarkable cures may be had of blood diseases, impotencies to marriage, etc., all diseases of indiscretion, excesses, indulgences, Safe medicines; consultation free. "Health, Beauty, Longevity," 350 pages, sent sealed, 50 cents, or at office.

CITY NEWS.

Try our 48e tea. For delicacy of flavor and strength they are unequalled. IMA BOUTEL.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated, and made fine furnished. Dr. Dinsheer, 814 Pine Street.

The owner having other business to occupy his entire time off his stock, fixtures and working material of a long established first-class hair and fancy goods store, situated in the business center of this city. The business has a reputation of twenty-seven years' standing, and is worth the asking price of $1,500.00. The trade is good business or to extend their trade. The property, all of which is first-class, will be offered at a positive bargain for cash, approved credit or desirable real estate. For an interview address M. A. Perkins, 4118 Pine street.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Jacques, 709 Chestnut Street.

Our own citizens, men, women, or St. Charles street, as for twenty-five years, may be found from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. where remarkable cures may be had of blood diseases, impotencies to marriage, etc., all diseases of indiscretion, excesses, indulgences, Safe medicines; consultation free. "Health, Beauty, Longevity," 350 pages, sent sealed, 50 cents, or at office.

CHARLOTTE CUSHMAN thought Pezzoni's Medicated Complexion Powder the best she ever used.

Dr. E. C. Chase,
222 Olive street. Set of teeth $3.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated, and made fine furnished. Dr. Dinsheer, 814 Pine Street.

The owner having other business to occupy his entire time off his stock, fixtures and working material of a long established first-class hair and fancy goods store, situated in the business center of this city. The business has a reputation of twenty-seven years' standing, and is worth the asking price of $1,500.00. The trade is good business or to extend their trade. The property, all of which is first-class, will be offered at a positive bargain for cash, approved credit or desirable real estate. For an interview address M. A. Perkins, 4118 Pine street.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Jacques, 709 Chestnut Street.

Our own citizens, men, women, or St. Charles street, as for twenty-five years, may be found from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. where remarkable cures may be had of blood diseases, impotencies to marriage, etc., all diseases of indiscretion, excesses, indulgences, Safe medicines; consultation free. "Health, Beauty, Longevity," 350 pages, sent sealed, 50 cents, or at office.

CHARLOTTE CUSHMAN thought Pezzoni's Medicated Complexion Powder the best she ever used.

Dr. E. C. Chase,
222 Olive street. Set of teeth $3.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated, and made fine furnished. Dr. Dinsheer, 814 Pine Street.

The owner having other business to occupy his entire time off his stock, fixtures and working material of a long established first-class hair and fancy goods store, situated in the business center of this city. The business has a reputation of twenty-seven years' standing, and is worth the asking price of $1,500.00. The trade is good business or to extend their trade. The property, all of which is first-class, will be offered at a positive bargain for cash, approved credit or desirable real estate. For an interview address M. A. Perkins, 4118 Pine street.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Jacques, 709 Chestnut Street.

Our own citizens, men, women, or St. Charles street, as for twenty-five years, may be found from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. where remarkable cures may be had of blood diseases, impotencies to marriage, etc., all diseases of indiscretion, excesses, indulgences, Safe medicines; consultation free. "Health, Beauty, Longevity," 350 pages, sent sealed, 50 cents, or at office.

CHARLOTTE CUSHMAN thought Pezzoni's Medicated Complexion Powder the best she ever used.

Dr. E. C. Chase,
222 Olive street. Set of teeth $3.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated, and made fine furnished. Dr. Dinsheer, 814 Pine Street.

The owner having other business to occupy his entire time off his stock, fixtures and working material of a long established first-class hair and fancy goods store, situated in the business center of this city. The business has a reputation of twenty-seven years' standing, and is worth the asking price of $1,500.00. The trade is good business or to extend their trade. The property, all of which is first-class, will be offered at a positive bargain for cash, approved credit or desirable real estate. For an interview address M. A. Perkins, 4118 Pine street.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Jacques, 709 Chestnut Street.

Our own citizens, men, women, or St. Charles street, as for twenty-five years, may be found from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. where remarkable cures may be had of blood diseases, impotencies to marriage, etc., all diseases of indiscretion, excesses, indulgences, Safe medicines; consultation free. "Health, Beauty, Longevity," 350 pages, sent sealed, 50 cents, or at office.

CHARLOTTE CUSHMAN thought Pezzoni's Medicated Complexion Powder the best she ever used.

Dr. E. C. Chase,
222 Olive street. Set of teeth $3.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated, and made fine furnished. Dr. Dinsheer, 814 Pine Street.

The owner having other business to occupy his entire time off his stock, fixtures and working material of a long established first-class hair and fancy goods store, situated in the business center of this city. The business has a reputation of twenty-seven years' standing, and is worth the asking price of $1,500.00. The trade is good business or to extend their trade. The property, all of which is first-class, will be offered at a positive bargain for cash, approved credit or desirable real estate. For an interview address M. A. Perkins, 4118 Pine street.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Jacques, 709 Chestnut Street.

Our own citizens, men, women, or St. Charles street, as for twenty-five years, may be found from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. where remarkable cures may be had of blood diseases, impotencies to marriage, etc., all diseases of indiscretion, excesses, indulgences, Safe medicines; consultation free. "Health, Beauty, Longevity," 350 pages, sent sealed, 50 cents, or at office.

CHARLOTTE CUSHMAN thought Pezzoni's Medicated Complexion Powder the best she ever used.

Dr. E. C. Chase,
222 Olive street. Set of teeth $3.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated, and made fine furnished. Dr. Dinsheer, 814 Pine Street.

The owner having other business to occupy his entire time off his stock, fixtures and working material of a long established first-class hair and fancy goods store, situated in the business center of this city. The business has a reputation of twenty-seven years' standing, and is worth the asking price of $1,500.00. The trade is good business or to extend their trade. The property, all of which is first-class, will be offered at a positive bargain for cash, approved credit or desirable real estate. For an interview address M. A. Perkins, 4118 Pine street.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Jacques, 709 Chestnut Street.

Our own citizens, men, women, or St. Charles street, as for twenty-five years, may be found from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. where remarkable cures may be had of blood diseases, impotencies to marriage, etc., all diseases of indiscretion, excesses, indulgences, Safe medicines; consultation free. "Health, Beauty, Longevity," 350 pages, sent sealed, 50 cents, or at office.

CHARLOTTE CUSHMAN thought Pezzoni's Medicated Complexion Powder the best she ever used.

Dr. E. C. Chase,
222 Olive street. Set of teeth $3.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated, and made fine furnished. Dr. Dinsheer, 814 Pine Street.

The owner having other business to occupy his entire time off his stock, fixtures and working material of a long established first-class hair and fancy goods store, situated in the business center of this city. The business has a reputation of twenty-seven years' standing, and is worth the asking price of $1,500.00. The trade is good business or to extend their trade. The property, all of which is first-class, will be offered at a positive bargain for cash, approved credit or desirable real estate. For an interview address M. A. Perkins, 4118 Pine street.

PRIVATE masters skilfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Jacques, 709 Chestnut Street.

Our own citizens, men, women, or St. Charles street, as for twenty-five years, may be found from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. where remarkable cures may be had of blood diseases, impotencies to marriage, etc., all diseases of indiscretion, excesses, indulgences, Safe medicines; consultation free. "Health, Beauty, Longevity," 350 pages, sent sealed, 50 cents, or at office.